

LOBSTER

It's loud, it's energetic, it's good, it's.....LOBSTER!!!

The three good fellows in Lobster are sure of one thing. Where ever you are and where ever you wanna go there's always time for some good rock'n roll. Lobster doesn't compromise when it comes to music. All that counts is the pounding energy that you can only get from traditional and good rock'n roll. Lobster doesn't care what's up to date right. All that Lobster wants is to give you a "badtothebonekickingasspure" rock'n roll music. You will recognize most of the songs in the repetoir and at the same time be amazed of how the typical lobsteristic sound of three hard playing gentlemen takes the songs to the right level. It's a mix of swedish smalltown steamrolling and a whole lot of joy when performing it.

Lobster's purpose, goal and ambition is to make sure that the audience feels as good as you can get when you're in to good rock'n roll.
